By Laurence R. Campbell
Director, Quill and Scroll Studies - 1974

The first handwritten newspaper produced by high school students in the United States was published in 1777 at William Penn Charter School in Philadelphia.

Data have been gathered from lists of newspapers entered in CSDA and NSPA critical services and from studies by Brown, Campbell, Edmunds, Carter, Coe, Huff, Knopf. Studies by Davis and Matoon list schools and communities but not publication names.

High school newspapers and magazines were founded or in existence at the times indicated below (N refers to Newspapers; M to Magazines):
